

Remaco MIC-806 Media Interface Controller is an electronic controller that can be used to control a projector as well as to trigger an electronically controlled screen and designed for user-friendly. By connecting the projector and the screen controller to the MIC, it eliminates the hassle of the use of remote controller, ideal for a simple Classrooms, Training rooms and Conference rooms which require to control for example LCD projector at a touch of button.

Technical Specifications (MIC-806)

~ Power Supply:

DC 12V power adapter (internal connector)

Selector:

- ~ Projector On/Off
- ~ Blank (toggle button)
- ~ Wireless (toggle button)
- ~ Screen Up
- ~ Screen Stop
- ~ Screen Down

Output:

- ~ RS 232 (internal connector)
- ~ Screen Up (dry contact)
- ~ Screen Stop (dry contact)
- ~ Screen Down (dry contact)

Feature:

- ~ Pre-program Projector Protocol
 - Easy self programming
 - Selection projector brand by using front button
- ~ One Touch Selection
 - LED back lit including sound buzzer